Nursery - Families from around the world

The children in Nursery enjoyed talking about images of a diverse range of families. These included families of different nationalities and with different family members. They focused on the names of the family member, the activities and the clothes which they linked to the weather.

The children in Reception talked in more detail.

'That is a lot of kids, my family hasn't got that many children.'

'He's not a boy, he is old like Mummy.'

'She's got a pretty hat like Bonkana.'

'She's got no shoes on, she must have cold feet.'

'There are two Mummies in this family.'

'I think there are two Daddies, but it might be uncle.'

'They are getting married, lots of family are there.'

Diwali – EYFS

Thaanvika came to school today wearing her brand new celebration clothes for Diwali. She also brought her Mum's beautiful sari and some images of Diwali celebrations. Thank you so much for sharing your experience with the whole class. They thought you looked just like a beautiful princess!

As part of our 'Celebrations' theme the children in both Reception and Nursery celebrated Diwali through listening to stories eg. Peppa's Diwali and Binny's Diwali; watching video clips on Cbeebies about how children and their families celebrate Diwali; making diva lamps from salt dough and sequins: drawing rangoli patterns on the playground with chalk and in a tray with rice; and listening to their friends talk about their experiences.

As an introduction to their class Country, India, Year 2 watched the videos on Cbeebies about how children celebrate Diwali all over the world.

I can't believe he was killed for his beliefs.
Martin Luther King Jr. was born in the United States of America. This is also known as the USA. His life was sometimes hard. Some people treated him differently because of the colour of his skin. He is very brave and he is very smart. There were different areas for Black people and White people on buses and in parks in the USA.

Martin Luther King Jr. wanted all people to be treated the same. He once told people about his dreams: here is a little bit of his speech.
I can't believe they had different spaces on buses!

Martin liked to...
 play sports
 play the piano
 and go to school

when he was a child.
Things have become better for Black people in the USA because of Martin Luther King Jr. and others like him. However, there is still progress to be made.
